Silk Attire

Thursday, Friday & Saturday, June 1, 2 and 3,

For desirable silk in lengths from one yard to 15 yards what is left after two months selling. These are in checks, stripes and figured and are the season's best sellers that brought 65 and 75c. If you need a waist or suit length take it out of these at only 49c.

Waists.

Look at our line of Ready-to-Wear Wash and Silk Waists.

More emphatically than ever in Silk, the Queen of Fabrics this season. We believed this would be the case and have bought largely and sold largely of Silks. The kind we have are not the kind that fade and cut after a few days wear, but Silks that will give satisfaction; that will last long after the garment they compose has become out of style.

Are the days we will allow this cut-price; none sold before these dates and none after, at this cut price. Those who come first will of course have more to select from.

WHITE HABUTAI SILK

24 inch, at 39c; 27 inch at 50c; 36 inch, at $1.00.

YARD WIDE BLACK TAFFETA.

We believe you will find our goods just a little better than those usually sold at $1.00 and $1.25.

A LARGE number of the "youngest set" attended the birthday anniversary of Thomas and Harris Coleman at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Coleman. The former was 12 and the latter 10 years old. Each of the little guests carried presents and the home was almost full of gifts by the time the last of them arrived. Delightful refreshments were served and all had a good time.

THE reception given by Mrs. W. H. Shanks in honor of Miss Catherine Baughman at her handsome country home yesterday afternoon was an exceedingly swell as well as enjoyable affair. Fully 100 guests responded to the invitations sent out and they enjoyed to the fullest extent the hospitality of the charming hostess. Mrs. Shanks, Miss Baughman and Miss Anna Cooke were in the receiving line and they with others entertained most acceptably. Elegant refreshments were served, an hour or more was spent in conversation, good-bye's were reluctantly said and all went home feeling that it was good to have been there.

ENJOYABLE OCCASION.—The reunion and decoration near Old Double Springs church and burying ground, in the Waynesburg vicinity, Tuesday was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The members of the Baptist church, the Masons, Macabees, members of the Benevolent Society and Modern Woodmen all went in to make the day a memorable one and right well did they succeed. A crowd estimated at from 1,000 to 1,500 was present and we have never had the pleasure of seeing a more orderly or better disposed one. At about 12 o'clock dinner was announced and a royal one it was. The question where did so much come from, was asked many and many a time and the beauty of it was, it was as free as the air. Just before dinner the graves were decorated, but prior to this Rev. R. B. Mahony, who had been delegated to do so, delivered a most appropriate address of welcome, to which Rev. W. R. Davidson responded. Rev. O. M. Huey delivered the memorial address, which was well timed and full of good things. In the afternoon the following program was gone through with: The Church's Obligations and Duties to its Members, Rev. R. R. Noel. The Origin and Benefits of Fraternal Orders, M. F. Elkin. Music. Are Fraternal Orders Detrimental to Christianity or are They Injurious to the Church? J. L. Owens. Our Duty to Those Who Carry Protection for Us, Mrs. Hundley. Do Fraternal Orders Have a Tendency to Make Us Better Men? Dr. W. B. O'Bannon. What Fraternal Orders are Doing for our Community, W. R. Davidson. All of the speakers acquitted themselves so creditably that it would be invidious to particularize. Mr. M. G. Reynolds was chairman and he made a most dignified and efficient one. During the day a number of songs appropos of the occasion were sung, with Mr. Stephen Harrison Gooch as chorister. In Double Springs cemetery are soldiers of five wars and Rev. R. R. Noel had the sad privilege of placing flowers on the graves of each of them. Littleton Salyers, who fought in the Revolutionary war, is buried there, as is George W. Williams, of 1812 fame. The Mexican soldier who sleeps the sleep that knows no waking, is Wm. Stringer. Several civil war veterans lie there and the grave of B. Reynolds, of the Spanish-American war, bears silent but substantial proof of the unpleasantness of only a few years ago. It is indeed remarkable that representatives of the last five wars should find their last resting place in this rather obscure little city of the dead. Old Double Springs church, built in 1804, still stands, but is no longer used as a house of worship. This old structure was built before nails were cheap enough to use and it was put together with wooden pegs, even the shingles being fastened on with them. The handsome church at New Waynesburg might be called a successor to this historic old building, which has withstood the ravages of over 100 years' time. Many glorious meetings have been held within its walls, but probably the best and greatest of them was that of the Rev. Tyree, some 25 years ago, when 125 people gave their hearts and lives to the Giver of all good and perfect gifts. It was at this meeting that Mr. E. B. Caldwell professed religion. He was only a few weeks later chosen superintendent of the Sunday school, which position he held to the satisfaction of all until last year, when the good people of his Sunday school reluctantly accepted his resignation.

YESTERDAY, the first day of Summer, was clear and cool and much more like early Spring than the beginning of the heated season.

MR. W. R. DENHAM's fine Scotch Collie went mad and had to be killed. J. H. Baughman had a large steer to go mad and die.

THE engraved invitations sent out by the graduating class of Stanford Male & Female Seminary are the handsomest we have seen for a long time.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Graded School Tuesday night Misses Annie Dunn, of this place, and Frances Adams, of Hustonville, were elected teachers—good selections, both of them.

WE will open a dress-making establishment in the "Old Unnely Brick" on Lancaster Street Monday June 5th and solicit a share of your patronage. Mrs. Henry Holderman and Miss Susie Cooley.

We have just received a new shipment of cool summer Lawns, Embroidered Swisses, organdies, Veils, Panamas, Neckwear, Laces, Belts, etc. Come to us for the latest and best. John P. Jones.

MOBLEY.—Mrs. Annie E. Mobley, step-mother of Messrs. J. S. and C. Mobley, of the McKinney section, died in Nelson county of a complication of troubles and was buried at McKinney Wednesday. She was about 60 years old and a most excellent woman.

FRUITS, SHADE TREES, ETC.

HUSH HONEY! DON'T CRY!

I am still agent for The Victor Talking Machine. The Victor is so perfect that it is often mistaken for the human voice. It is proving a never-failing source of delight to thousands of disappointed people. To all lovers of good music, The Victor is an inspiration; no matter how much entertainment there is at home The Victor is always welcome. You can at all times listen to bands, orchestras, songs, instrumental music, etc., that thousands of people flock to hear in crowded resorts, there is no limit to the variety of selections. This matchless instrument will recite to you. Can I interest you? If so, call and see sample machine and hear it work. On exhibition at my store N. W. Cor. Depot St. THOS. C. BALL, Stanford, Ky.

Antecarlo, 2:26 1-2.

Made over Versailles track in winning race. Sired by Anteo, 2:16 1-2, that sold for $50,000 at public sale. First dam Mary Ann, by Halstorm 85, son of Mambrino Patchen. These two crosses produced The Abbot, 2:32 1-4, champion trotting gelding of the world by Independence, son of Andrew Jackson. Independence's dam by American Star. The American Star and Andrew Jackson blood is responsible for the world's two top crosses. You see Antecarlo's two top crosses are responsible for the fastest gelding, two next crosses are responsible for the fastest stallion. Then you see he is better bred than either of them for he has the blood of both. Antecarlo is a solid brown horse, 15 3-4 hands high, weighing 1,170 pounds, fine style and action. Will stand at $10 to insure a living colt.

Will also stand the young jack, ABRAM 3:30, at $5 to insure a colt. He was sired by Abram 2nd and he by an imported jack. Abram 3rd's first dam by Velocipede, 2nd dam by 2nd, Palermo, 3rd dam by Morongo Mammoth. Lien retained on colts for season money. Mares traded or bred to other horses forfeits insurance and makes season money due.

Both will stand at my farm on Somerset pike, four miles from Stanford. Mares grazed at $2 per month. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur. WILLIAM M. FIELDS, Stanford, Ky.
